

Our heartfelt sympathies even at this time we have you in our prayers and are certain you will rebuild even bigger and stronger than before

This is an unprecedented disaster and I share in the grief of all Japanese. May the spirit thrive on the Samuel Pagan, PhD. Animal Experimentation

Japan my second home. I feel your pain and share in your moment of grief. Even though the challenge seem unshakable, I remind you of the power of self knowledge-mirror. I encourage you not to quit but dig in and hold on because tough people rise to the top in rough time

Dr. William Kofi Anyan
Dept. of Parasitology

Dear friends, at such a difficult time we sincerely empathize with you. We love you and pray that God will continue to strengthen and encourage you in these moments of trouble.

Dr. Regina Appiah-Opong
Clinical Pathology dept.

I extend my condolence to the Japanese. May you triumph over this calamity and come out a stronger, more prosperous and beautiful country than ever before. Amen

My Sympathy & Sorry over your difficulties arising from the earthquake & Tsunami. Take heart and may the Lord keep you & bring you to Himself and His Comfort.

Prof. Pii-Ayi. Androch
Clin Path Dept.

My heart felt grief for you all and I hope the Almighty God will be with you.
Dr. Mark Ofori-Owena
Clinical Pathology

This disaster is unprecedented and likewise the cost of it to the good people of Japan. I pray that with determination and God's help Japan will be back on her feet. My deepest condolences especially for the precious lives lost. Japan will rise again! All the best!!

Dr. James Brandful, Dept of Virology

Beloved brethren, what happened is very sad but cheer up. All is not lost. The good Lord who is able to do all things will restore that which is lost and bring smile on your face once more.

Dr. John Kofi Odiam
Virology Department

We empathize with you as you go through this difficult time. May the good Lord strengthen and restore all that has been lost.

S. O. ASAMANI

A.G. Librarian

Our deepest sympathies for your loss, pain and difficulties. We continue to pray for the grace of strength and resolve to opt back to normalcy.
G. ARIMARA